Continuation of Mark's Gospel: 5: 34-43
 'My daughter,' he said, 'your faith has restored you to health; go in peace and be free of your complaint.' While he was still speaking some people arrived from the house of the president of the synagogue to say, 'Your daughter is dead; why put the Master to any further trouble?' But Jesus overheard what they said and he said to the president of the synagogue, 'Do not be afraid; only have faith.' And he allowed no one to go with him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. So they came to the house of the president of the synagogue, and Jesus noticed all the commotion, with people weeping and wailing unrestrainedly. He went in and said to them, 'Why all this commotion and crying? The child is not dead, but asleep.' But they ridiculed him. So he turned them all out and, taking with him the child's father and mother and his own companions, he went into the place where the child lay. And taking the child by the hand he said to her, 'Talitha kum!' which means, 'Little girl, I tell you to get up.' The little girl got up at once and began to walk about, for she was twelve years old. At once they were overcome with astonishment, and he gave them strict orders not to let anyone know about it, and told them to give her something to eat.

Our Lady Star of the Sea St Francis of Assisi Gardening club:

We are soon launching our very own gardening club to not only create a beautiful garden but to address the need to become more environmentally friendly. Pope Francis Encyclical Laudato Si communicates that we need to respect the Earth as our common home, therefore we plan to reduce our carbon footprint by growing our own flowers and food. The group is open for all ages, and will meet together on a set number of times. Furthermore, members of the group will be permitted to carry out their tasks at times that are suitable to them, so if you have children for example, it can be done perhaps after school or on a weekend. We also plan to have educational sessions for all presented by both Parishioners and experts.

Please communicate your interest with Father Isek, Cath Stones Kelly

In a mother's womb were two babies. The first baby asked the other: "Do you believe in life after delivery?" The second baby replied, "Why, of course. There has to be something after delivery. Maybe we are here to prepare ourselves for what we will be later." "Nonsense," said the first. "There is no life after delivery. What would that life be?" "I don't know, but there will be more light than here. Maybe we will walk with our legs and eat from our mouths." The doubting baby laughed. "This is absurd! Walking is impossible. And eat with our mouths? Ridiculous! The umbilical cord supplies nutrition. Life after delivery is to be excluded. The umbilical cord is too short." The second baby held his ground. "I think there is something and maybe it's different than it is here." The first baby replied, "No one has ever come back from there. Delivery is the end of life, and in the after-delivery it is nothing but darkness and anxiety and it takes us nowhere." "Well, I don't know," said the twin, "but certainly we will see mother and she will take care of us." "Mother?" The first baby guffawed. "You believe in mother? Where is she now?" The second baby calmly and patiently tried to explain. "She is all around us. It is in her that we live. Without her there would not be this world." "Ha. I don't see her, so it's only logical that she doesn't exist." To which the other replied, "Sometimes when you're in silence you can hear her, you can perceive her. I believe there is a reality after delivery and we are here to prepare ourselves for that reality when it comes...."
