Matthews Catholic Gospel 14:14-21

So as he stepped ashore he saw a large crowd; and he took pity on them and healed their sick. When evening came, the disciples went to him and said, 'This is a lonely place, and time has slipped by; so send the people away, and they can go to the villages to buy themselves some food.' Jesus replied, 'There is no need for them to go: give them something to eat yourselves.' But they answered, 'All we have with us is five loaves and two fish.' So he said, 'Bring them here to me.' He gave orders that the people were to sit down on the grass; then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven and said the blessing. And breaking the loaves he handed them to his disciples, who gave them to the crowds. They all ate as much as they wanted, and they collected the scraps left over, twelve baskets full. Now about five thousand men had eaten, to say nothing of women and children.

"Come back to me." Lent 2021

Prayer

Sweet Jesus, overflowing heart of charity for sinful humans full of carelessness, negligence and contempt of your love. Now Lord we prostrate before your mercy for our cruel indifference and injuries, to your loving Heart.

Through the intercession of your Blessed virgin Mother, Mary, our model in reparation, we beseech you to receive the voluntary offering we make in the ashes on ourselves for expiation. Help us by your gift of perseverance, keep us faithful in our duty to charity and prayer with Alms giving. May we one day come to your eternal home, were You and the Father and the Holy Spirit dwell eternally, Amen

You may now bless yourselves with the ashes in the envelope.

Holy Lenten season to you all,

Father Agbor F. Isek, MSP
