Matthew's Gospel 12: 13-28

He replied, 'It is an evil and unfaithful generation that asks for a sign! The only sign it will be given is the sign of the prophet Jonah. For as Jonah remained in the belly of the sea-monster for three days and three nights, so will the Son of man be in the heart of the earth for three days and three nights. On Judgement Day the men of Nineveh will appear against this generation and they will be its condemnation, because when Jonah preached they repented; and look, there is something greater than Jonah here. On Judgement Day the Queen of the South will appear against this generation and be its condemnation, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and look, there is something greater than Solomon here. 'When an unclean spirit goes out of someone it wanders through waterless country looking for a place to rest, and cannot find one. Then it says, "I will return to the home I came from." But on arrival, finding it unoccupied, swept and tidied, it then goes off and collects seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and set up house there, and so that person ends up worse off than before. That is what will happen to this wicked generation.' He was still speaking to the crowds when suddenly his mother and his brothers were standing outside and were anxious to have a word with him. Someone said to him: Your mother and brothers are standing outside and want to speak to you. But to the man who told him this Jesus replied, 'Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?' And stretching out his hand towards his disciples he said, 'Here are my mother and my brothers. Anyone who does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother.'

Pope Francis

“Love is the greatest power for the transformation of reality because it pulls down the walls of selfishness and fills the ditches that keep us apart.”

Announcements

Reminder

The office is closed on Mondays, send all enquiries via email. Please call for any emergency such as anointing.

Food bank– If anyone would like to donate, then they can do so, by placing in the plastic box next to the Presbytery, many thanks to Ronnie who kindly organised this.

Care for creation

Dedicate one day to eating a vegetarian diet, or even better, dedicate Monday, Wednesday and Friday! Meat has a much bigger environmental impact footprint than vegetables.

Saints for this week:

St Leo the great : In 1754, Pope Benedict XIV proclaimed Leo I a Doctor of the Church. Pope Leo I faithfully and unequivocally held to the belief that everything he did and said as pope represented Jesus Christ, and St. Peter. He discharged his office, and vocation, with dynamic faith, great pastoral care and excellence. His feast day is celebrated on November 10. (Catholic.org)

St Martin de Tours: Saint Martin is the patron of the poor, soldiers, conscientious objectors, tailors, and winemakers. Many locations across Europe have also been placed under his patronage. His feast is on November 11. He commonly appears on horseback and is shown cutting his cloak in half with a sword.

Sister Genevieve RIP

Sister Genevieve has been called home to the Father, she passed peacefully on Monday 2nd November. Please pray for the peaceful repose of her soul and for the comfort of all her sisters in the convent, her family and friends at this difficult time.

Soap of hope

Two of our parishioners, Anja and Benjamin Kaiser are embarking on an exciting new venture, ‘Soap of hope’, which will be a new catholic charitable organization. They are requesting new members of staff for their current soap manufacturing business. If you are interested please go to: <http://tuulasoap.co.uk/jobs/>
