Continuation of Mark's Gospel: 3: 1-12

He now went up onto the mountain and summoned those he wanted. So they came to him and he appointed twelve; they were to be his companions and to be sent out to proclaim the message, with power to drive out devils. And so he appointed the Twelve, Simon to whom he gave the name Peter, James the son of Zebedee and John the brother of James, to whom he gave the name Boanerges or 'Sons of Thunder'; Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot, the man who was to betray him. He went home again, and once more such a crowd collected that they could not even have a meal. When his relations heard of this, they set out to take charge of him; they said, 'He is out of his mind.' The scribes who had come down from Jerusalem were saying, 'Beelzebul is in him,' and, 'It is through the prince of devils that he drives devils out.' So he called them to him and spoke to them in parables, 'How can Satan drive out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot last. And if a household is divided against itself, that household can never last. Now if Satan has rebelled against himself and is divided, he cannot last either -- it is the end of him. But no one can make his way into a strong man's house and plunder his property unless he has first tied up the strong man. Only then can he plunder his house.

Important Notice: Ordination to Sacred Orders - Deacon

Mr. Matthew Paul Andrew Bond, a seminarian of this diocese at the Pontifical Beda College, Rome has requested ordination to the diaconate in his progress towards ordination to priesthood. In order to satisfy the criteria 'enquiry among the people of Christ' I invite you to give your testimony regarding his qualities and suitability for ordination. (Canons 1051, 1052§1)

Your response should include when and how you know Matthew as well as your identity and contact details.

Responses should be made by Friday 5th June to The Rt. Rev'd Peter M. Brignall, Bishop of Wrexham, Bishop's House, Sontley Road, Wrexham LL13 7EW or pa@rcdwxm.org.uk

Additionally, please keep Matthew in your prayers in these strangest of times for the Church as he prepares for ordination, the completion of his studies and formation, then priesthood and ministry.

Mass intentions: You are invited to send in your Mass intentions via the office or you can post an envelope through the Presbytery door. Masses can be offered for many intentions such as celebrations, healing, a happy marriage, the sick, for a new job, in thanksgiving and for those who have passed away to name but a few

Saint of the week: St Gianna Beretta Molla- Feast day April 19th

In less than 40 years, Gianna Beretta Molla became a pediatric physician, a wife, a mother and a saint! Early in her fourth pregnancy, doctors discovered that Gianna had both a child and a tumor in her uterus. She allowed the surgeons to remove the tumor but not to perform the complete hysterectomy that they recommended, which would have killed the child. Seven months later in April 1962, Gianna Emanuela Molla was born at the hospital in Monza, but post-operative complications resulted in an infection for her mother. The following week Gianna Molla died at home. With great faith and courage, Gianna Molla made the choice that enabled her daughter to be born. We can often wish that we were in different circumstances, but holiness frequently comes from making difficult choices in bad situations.

Crafting for Peru

Thank you to all who are knitting, sewing, crocheting, making cards... for the Loreto Mission in Lima. We are still unable to confirm a date for the Craft Fair but hope to do so before too long. The situation there continues to be dire, with around 200 deaths a day. We cannot solve all the world's problems but all parishioners are doing will help to relieve the suffering for at least some people in Lima.

Let's keep crafting...
