Thankyou!

A big thank you to the children who took part in the crowning of our lady last weekend, they did a beautiful job well done!

Continuation of Mark's Gospel: 4:10-20

When he was alone, the Twelve, together with the others who formed his company, asked what the parables meant. He told them, 'To you is granted the secret of the kingdom of God, but to those who are outside everything comes in parables, so that they may look and look, but never perceive; listen and listen, but never understand; to avoid changing their ways and being healed.' He said to them, 'Do you not understand this parable? Then how will you understand any of the parables? What the sower is sowing is the word. Those on the edge of the path where the word is sown are people who have no sooner heard it than Satan at once comes and carries away the word that was sown in them. Similarly, those who are sown on patches of rock are people who, when first they hear the word, welcome it at once with joy. But they have no root deep down and do not last; should some trial come, or some persecution on account of the word, at once they fall away. Then there are others who are sown in thorns. These have heard the word, but the worries of the world, the lure of riches and all the other passions come in to choke the word, and so it produces nothing. And there are those who have been sown in rich soil; they hear the word and accept it and yield a harvest, thirty and sixty and a hundredfold.'

Important Notice: Ordination to Sacred Orders - Deacon

Mr. Matthew Paul Andrew Bond, a seminarian of this diocese at the Pontifical Beda College, Rome has requested ordination to the diaconate in his progress towards ordination to priesthood. In order to satisfy the criteria 'enquiry among the people of Christ' I invite you to give your testimony regarding his qualities and suitability for ordination. (Canons 1051, 1052§1)

Your response should include when and how you know Matthew as well as your identity and contact details.

Responses should be made by Friday 5th June to The Rt. Rev'd Peter M. Brignall, Bishop of Wrexham, Bishop's House, Sontley Road, Wrexham LL13 7EW or pa@rcdwxm.org.uk

Additionally, please keep Matthew in your prayers in these strangest of times for the Church as he prepares for ordination, the completion of his studies and formation, then priesthood and ministry.

Mass intentions: You are invited to send in your Mass intentions via the office or you can post an envelope through the Presbytery door. Masses can be offered for many intentions such as celebrations, healing, a happy marriage, the sick, for a new job, in thanksgiving and for those who have passed away to name but a few

Christian Aid week 2021

Every envelope can change lives and help the world's most vulnerable people. What will your envelope do this year?

Christian Aid works with local partners and communities to fight injustice, respond to humanitarian emergencies, campaign for change, and help people claim the services and rights they are entitled to. They give people the resources to claim their rights and access services such as healthcare and education, ensure they are not discriminated against for any reason, become more resilient to shocks and disasters such as drought, climate change and hurricanes and to make the most of opportunities, such as being able to sell their produce for a fair price. Your donations have already changed so many peoples lives please help to ensure that this vital work can continue.

Ascension Thursday: The 13th of May is the feast of the Ascension, this marks 40 days after the resurrection of Jesus.

"Jesus Christ, the head of the Church, precedes us into the Father's glorious kingdom so that we, the members of his Body, may live in the hope of one day being with him for ever. Jesus Christ, having entered the sanctuary of heaven once and for all, intercedes constantly for us as the mediator who assures us of the permanent outpouring of the Holy Spirit."

- The Catechism of the Catholic Church
