Gospel of John : 20:1-9

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved. ‘They have taken the Lord out of the tomb’ she said ‘and we don’t know where they have put him.’

So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb. They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first; he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in. Simon Peter who was following now came up, went right into the tomb, saw the linen cloths on the ground, and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed. Till this moment they had failed to understand the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

Mass intentions: You are invited to send in your Mass intentions via the office or you can post an envelope through the Presbytery door. Masses can be offered for many intentions such as celebrations, healing, a happy marriage, the sick, for a new job, in thanksgiving and for those who have passed away to name but a few

Jesus Christ is Risen today! Hallelujah

My Dear Parishioners ,

I cannot help but remind us all to be grateful to God for his graciousness, for through his Son’s sacrifice death was destroyed and the gates of heaven opened to all His faithful. On this greatest day of the year, all fasting and sombre thoughts are banished., O death where is your victory? O death where is you sting?

As your Parish Priest, I would like to extend my great appreciation to you individually and collectively, for your prayers, your ideas for Lent, your dedication in volunteering your time, your commitment to your faith and your support to one another .

Going forward the scripture asked what shall I bring to the lord and the Lord responds, yourself, your talents, your time .I encourage you therefore, to make a commitment to yourself to use your time more fruitfully in serving God and the Church.

I wish you all Easter Blessings,

Father Agbor F. Isek, msp
